To All Our Valued Customers:

Further to our last correspondence regarding the M/V LAETITIA voyage 196S, we wish to advise that the vessel owners have reported that the repairs are still ongoing and once completed, they will have to perform sea trials to ensure she is fully operational.

It is expected that we will have an update within the next 24-48 hours from the vessel owners in regards to when the repairs and assessment expect be completed which will permit the vessel to depart Nassau.

We will keep you informed once we hear back from vessel owners. Thank you for your continued understanding during this time.

Sincerely,
